Accidents to Gupners. Mr. John F. Ford, a clerk in the docu-ment room of the Interior Department, while preparing to go gunning last Satur-day, met with a painful and serious acci-dent. His nephew, who was near him, did not know that the gun was loaded. As a consequence Mr. Ford lost the two middle fingers of his right hand at the second joint and the thumb of the same hand at the first joint. His little finger was also injured.

Three young men were out gunning near Bowle on Sunday. While running to se-cure a squirrel which had been wounded, one of them tripped and fell, his gun being discharged by the shock. A young man named Disney, who was in advance, was shot in the neck.

AT THE PLAY.

The "Critic's" Judgment on This Week's Amosements. "A. Morai Crime" was put on at Ford's Opera House hast night with an elaborate ness of detail and a general harmony officers rarely attempted. The play is o the conciloual school and is vivid in action and strong in dialogue. The leading part was admirably stratained by Miss Marie Prescot, a lady of ability, with a sympaticitic voice and wonderful mobility of features. Her conception of the part is commity while her rendition is artistic. Mr. Caworth's Philippe was a carefully studied piece of acting, reflued and chasts in conception and execution. The other parts were well taken, Miss Herry, Mr. Walton and Mr. Roysten being especially worthy of mention. The company in fact is a very strong one, and presents a performance which is truly enjoyable by all lovers of genuine dramatic att. The play will continue through the week.

NATIONAL THEATRE. the emotional school and is vivid in action

NATIONAL THEATRE. Harrison & Gourlay repeated their sun-cess of last season at the National Theatre cess of last season at the National Treatree last night in "Skipped by the Light of the Moon." Much new business has been introduced. The large sudlence thoroughly appreciated the many ridiculous situations if uprourious laughter is any indication of enjoyment, but otherwise the play possesses little intrinsic merit. The company is a good one and will no doubt draw well during the week. ng the week.

ALBAUGH'S GRAND OPERA HOUSE. A good audience witnessed the first per formance of "Alone in London" at Al-baugh's Grand Opera House last night. The baugh's Grand Opera House last night. The play is a melo-draftna of some striking situ-ations and is well done in all its parts by a competent company. Miss Tanner as New worked up the sympathy of the amilience to a high pitch and showed berself one of the most capable emotional actresses that has appeared here. Miss Helle Archer of this city also surprised her old-time friends by her careful acting. The play is well mounted, and, though not the very best off the kind, presenses considerable sensational inand, possesses considerable sensational tr

NINTH STREET OPERA-HOUSE. The "Woman in Red" drew a large andince last night to Herzog's Opera-House. Miss Claire Scott in the dual roles of Miriam and Rudiga displayed a remark-Mirium and Runiga displayed a remarkable degree of dramatic power and was well supported. The performance was evidently a success throughout. The orchestra at this cosy little theatre is one of the best in the city, and their selections are well appreciated. One of the features of Herzog's is the ever-fresh and picasing supply of new scenery which is being prepared at the theatre by a skillful scenic artist, whose whole time is devoted to his work. The "Woman in Red" will be repeated this evening and to-morrow evening, "East Lynne" being produced at the matinees. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights Miss Scott will appear in "Leah."

DIME MUSEUM. Standing-room only was announced at the Dime Museum last night long before the hour of opening, and hundreds of people were turned away for want of breathing pace. The attraction was Frank Frayne in "Si Slocum," with the famous "star" dog Jack. Frink Frayne won a reputation for himself years ago and is now reaping the reward of honest, hard work in his profession. The same bill will continue through the week, afternoon and evening.

THEATRE COMIQUE. The Theatre Comique was well filled last night by an audience that enjoyed the va-riety bill presented. This theatre is making specialty of stage-setting, and Mr. Ted. Skillette, the scenic artist of the Adelphi Theatre of Buffalo, N. Y., is now engaged in painting an entire new outfit of scenes for coming attractions. The bill which was well received last night will be given throughout the week.

A Deadly Assault. Two boatmen, named James Lacey and William Hurt, were in Morgan's store, corner of Jefferson and Water streets, West Washington, making some purchases last night, and left about 9 o'clock to go to their night, and left about 9 o'clock to go to their bost, which was lying at Wheatley's wharf. While in the store two other men, named Charles Donaldson and David Slaton, were talking about fighting, but nothing was thought of it when the other two men left. Lacey and Hurt were followed, however, by the other two men and dangerously injured by them.

by them.

While they were passing through the umber yard, just before getting to the flock at which their vessel is lying, the dock at which their vessel is lying, the police report that they were waylaid by the two men, Donaldson and Slaton. Slaton used a pick handle and knocked Lacey down with a terrible blow on the head, and Donaldson with a plank beat Hurt in a frightful manner. Lacey received the worst injuries, however, and the life was nearly pounded out of him. Dr. Kleinschmidt states to-day that Lacey's recovery is very Slaton has been arrested, but the other

Death from Apoplexy. Mr. P. W. Forney, a gentleman about 4 years of age, was at the Baltimore & Potomac depot this morning to take the train to visit his family who reside in Lantrain to visit his family who reside in Lancaster, Pa. Suddenly, he was seized with an apoplectic fit. He was taken to his boarding house, at 457 Missouri avenue, but died shortly after arriving there. Mr. Forney was a very estimable gentleman and was employed in Mr. Sturgis' division of the office of the First Auditor of the Treasury. He was a nephew of the late John W. Forney, and a son of Mr. D. C. Forney of this city.

The wife has been on a visit to Lancaster, Pa., and he was summoned to her bedside by telegraph, and had procured leave of absence with a view of starting this morning. The remains will be sent to Lancaster this evening.
